

DVAC ZOOM WORKSHOP

Susan Woolgar: Capture the Essence of Landscape

Thursdays from 7-9 pm Oct 12, 19, 26, Nov 2, 2023

Susan presented a working process to help artists interpret the landscape in a personal and dynamic manner. She demonstrated how she takes a step away from painting a literal landscape to help you discover a new level of freedom and interpretation in your work.

On four consecutive Thursday evenings, Susan guided us through colour theory and related exercises for understanding the effects of colour. She demonstrated mark making and a variety of tools for painting. Susan used a variety of paintings by successful artists to show how they worked with the elements and principles of design to create effective paintings. On the last evening she demonstrated a delightful abstracted landscape based on her previous teaching. Susan's unique approach encouraged us to experiment and grow as artists.

About the Artist

Susan Woolgar is a signature member of the Alberta Society of Artist. After establishing a successful career as a Designer/Illustrator, she left advertising in 1982 to focus on being a Fine Art Painter and Instructor. She continues to explore her artistic expression and love of teaching in a variety of mediums, including acrylic, pastel, mixed media and watercolours. Her “Abstracting the Landscape” explorations have been met with critical acclaim by her contemporaries and her client base. She is represented by several galleries across the country. <https://susanwoolgar.com>
